Biographical Sketch:

Igor Grant, M.D., is Distinguished Professor and Executive Vice-Chair of the Department of Psychiatry at the University of California, San Diego School of Medicine. In collaboration with UCSD investigators in Psychiatry, Medicine, Neurosciences, Radiology, Pediatrics, and Pathology, Dr. Grant's research focuses on examining neuropsychological, neuroradiological, neurological, psychiatric, and neuropathological change in persons with HIV infection. This research is supported by an NIMH Center Grant, HIV Neurobehavioral Research Center (HNRC), of which he is Director and Principal Investigator. He is Director of the California NeuroAIDS Tissue Network (CNTN), a national research resource of neurologic and other tissues gathered from well characterized persons who died from AIDS. He is Director of the CNS HIV Antiretroviral Therapy Effects Research (CHARTER), a national initiative by NIMH and NINDS involving six academic sites focused on HIV neuropathogenesis, treatment, and prevention; and Director of the NIDA funded program project NeuroAIDS: Effects of Methamphetamine and HCV. He also directs the University of California's Center for Medicinal Cannabis Research. Dr. Grant has had 30 graduate students and post-doctoral trainees work under his supervision. He is author or coauthor of over 400 publications, and principal investigator of several NIH and VA grants.
